TRIATHLON SA TRI-BEFORE-YOU-BUY POLICY

Introduction

This policy is to encourage participation in the sport of triathlon, and become members of Recognised Triathlon Clubs / Squads. Non-Club Members and/or non-Triathlon Australia Members are allowed to participate in club conducted events or club endorsed training sessions within club affiliated with Triathlon South Australia.

Conditions

- An individual may only “tri” for a maximum period of 14 days.
- An individual may only use one “tri-before you-buy” period.
- An individual cannot have been a member in the previous 2 years.
- After this period if the wish to continue to train or compete at club events they must join the club and Triathlon Australia.

Application

- This is for club conducted or endorsed training sessions, events and races.
- In the case of a sanctioned club event / race all fees and conditions of Triathlon Australia Sanctioning Policy must be complied with including the payment of one day membership as stipulated in the policy. All one day memberships are payable to Triathlon Australia as stipulated in the sanctioning policy.
- In the case of a club / squad conducted or endorsed training sessions there is no fee payable.

Affiliated Club Requirements.

- The obligation to comply with this policy lies with the Race Director/President of the affiliated triathlon club conducting the event or training session.
- Clubs should keep a record of all people who avail themselves of this policy.
- The recognised club must keep a register of all non-member participants, consisting of date of attendance, name, age, address and email address and forward this to the association when requested.
- These records should be kept for a period of 5 years.
- The Race Director/President shall be responsible for ensuring that a non-member uses only one “tri-before-you-buy”. They will ensure that should that person wish to continue training with the club they will join the club and the association.
- The President and office bearers of the Club are aware that, in the event of this policy not being complied with, the insurance cover provided by TA for the event will be invalid. This will expose the President, office bearers and race director of the triathlon to any claims which may arise from the conduct of the event, including personal accident, public and product liability. The club may also have its insurance policy cancelled as a result of a breach.
